Sample Bequest Wording

Are you interested in helping National FFA, but feel overwhelmed by the thought of writing another check or giving up your assets today? A bequest is simple and convenient way to ensure we continue our mission for years to come.

You can make a bequest for a specific dollar amount or for a percentage of your estate. You can designate your bequest for general use or you can restrict its use. Many individuals establish endowments that honor the memory of a family member or another loved one. These endowments live forever, since only the income is used annually. Since a will is an important legal document, you should seek an attorney's help. For questions or more specific language, please call Matthew Treadwell at 317-802-6060 or send him an email at mtreadwell@ffa.org. To assist you with this important process, we offer some suggested bequest wording for you to share with your advisors:

“I [name] give, devise, and bequeath to the National FFA Foundation, a not-for-profit organization located in Indianapolis, Indiana (sum of/ percentage of/residue of my estate) as an unrestricted gift to be used at the discretion of the Board of Directors of the National FFA Foundation for the general purposes of the National FFA Foundation, located in Indianapolis, Indiana.”

The information on this website is not intended as legal or tax advice. For such advice, please consult an attorney or tax advisor. Figures cited in examples are for hypothetical purposes only and are subject to change. References to estate and income taxes include federal taxes only. State income/estate taxes or state law may impact your results.